The Collect

Almighty God,

you have knit together your elect

in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son

Jesus Christ our Lord:

grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints

in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys

that you have prepared for those who truly love you;

through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,

who is alive and reigns with you,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Psalm 24: 1–6

I. Atkins

- 1 The earth is the Lord's, and all that ' therein ' is : the compass of the ' world and ' they that ' dwell therein.
- 2 For he hath founded it up'on the ' seas : and pre'pared it up'on the ' floods.
- 3 Who shall ascend into the ' hill of the ' Lord : or who shall rise ' up . in his ' holy ' place?
- 4 Even he that hath clean hands and a ' pure ' heart : and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor ' sworn to de'ceive his ' neighbour.
- 5 He shall receive the ' blessing from the ' Lord : and righteousness from the ' God of ' his sal'vation.
- 6 This is the generation of ' them that ' seek thee : even of them that ' seek thy ' face O ' Jacob.

Pause for Reflection

To enter the mystical path through love may sound attractive and easy. Attractive indeed it is; but not easy. Anyone can gaze for hours at a flower or a flame or a mandala with the safe assurance that it won't hit back, it won't hurt him, it won't betray him. He can be united with a flower in great security. But with other persons much more is involved. The fear of being hurt, or betrayed, or unrequited – the fact that free persons are interacting on one another. All this makes for deeper purification, deeper anguish, deeper love, and, in consequence, deeper enlightenment.
