Vouchsafe us, when our race is run,
In thy fair body to be one.]

Pause for Reflection

[Music is] a thing which delighteth all ages and beseemeth all states; a thing as seasonable in grief as in joy . . . The reason hereof is an admirable facility which music hath to express and represent to the mind, more inwardly than any other sensible mean, the very standing, rising and falling, the very steps and inflections every way, the turns and varieties of all passions whereunto the mind is subject . . . There is that draweth us to a marvellous grave and sober mediocrity; there is also that carrieth as it were into ecstasies, filling the mind with an heavenly joy, and for the time in a manner severing it from the body.

Richard Hooker, Of the Laws of Ecclesiastical Polity
