The Collect

Almighty God,

whose Son Jesus Christ fasted forty days in the wilderness,

and was tempted as we are, yet without sin:

give us grace to discipline ourselves in obedience to your Spirit;

and, as you know our weakness,

so may we know your power to save;

through Jesus Christ our Lord

who is alive and reigns with you,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Old Testament Reading Deuteronomy 26: 1–11

General Notices

Trial Period for 10.45 am Sunday Sung Eucharist This trial period is intended to give our Rector, and any of our clergy taking the Belton service and then rushing back to take our Sung Eucharist, the opportunity for quiet reflection and prayer before starting our service. It also gives some time and space after the Belton service to chat with the congregation there. We have had a couple of comments from members of our congregation who prefer a 10.30 am start. If you feel it is really difficult for you to attend at 10.45 am please do speak to the Rector or Churchwardens. We are still in this trial period and your views are important.

Quartet It is time to find a new editor to take the parish magazine to the next level; if you would like to take on the challenge please speak to the Rector or Richard Cole to find out more.

Pancake Tea The choir would like to thank all those who supported the pancake tea. It was a lovely social occasion and we also raised in excess of £230 to be split between the Fabric Fund and Organ Fund. Thank you to our tea lady, Maggie Roberts, and also the Social and Outreach Committee, who provided the raffle prizes.

Readings for next Sunday (Second Sunday in Lent) Genesis 15: 1–12, 17–18; Philippians 3: 17–4: 1; Luke 13: 31–35

Pause for Reflection

For, this you must understand; that Religion is not satisfied in Notions; but doth indeed, and in reality, come to nothing, unless it be in us not only Matter of Knowledge and Speculation; but doth establish in us a Frame and Temper of Mind, and is productive of a holy and virtuous Life. Therefore, let these things take effect in us; in our Spirituality and Heavenly-mindedness; in our Conformity to the Divine Nature, and Nativity from above. For, whosoever professes that he believes the Truth of these things; and wants the Operation of them upon his Spirit, and Life; he doth, in fact, make void, and frustrate what he doth declare as his Belief: and so he doth receive the Grace of God in vain; unless this Principle, and Belief doth descend into his Heart, and establish a good Frame and Temper of Mind; and govern in all the Actions of his Life and Conversation.
