Processional Hymn 236 Breathe on me, breath of God

The Collect

God, who as at this time

taught the hearts of your faithful people

by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit:

grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort;

through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour,

who is alive and reigns with you,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

[The priests of the Lord offer incense and bread to their God; therefore shall they be holy unto their God and shall not defile his name.]

Antiphon at Mattins of Corpus Christi

Postcommunion Prayer

Faithful God,

who fulfilled the promises of Easter

by sending us your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation

the way of life eternal:

open our lips by your Spirit,

that every tongue may tell of your glory;

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Recessional Hymn 721 2nd tune Love divine, all loves excelling

General Notices and Further Dates

Crossword ‘Succentor’ would like to apologise for the error in the preamble to this month’s crossword: the reference to ‘unclued’ lights should have been to ‘partially clued’ lights.

‘Come Alive’ Saturday Worship The theme for our July worship will be ‘I am the Vine’. If we have any expert vine growers who would come along to share their expertise the Rector would love to hear from them. Also if any of you are technically minded and could offer to attend one, or some, of these Saturday Worship Sessions please do let the Rector know.

New Wine, Peterborough Day tickets will be available in early/mid June for Week 1 (27 July to 2 August), although these will be limited in number due to site capacity. Prices expected to be £35 per adult for the day and £21 for an adult evening ticket. Book online at <https://www.new-wine.org/>. Please let Janet & Geoff (821560) or Jill (821870) know if you have booked day tickets so that we can arrange to meet up with you on the Peterborough site. We look forward to seeing you there.

Dates for your Diary (1): Walking Pilgrimage We're planning a walking pilgrimage from Uppingham to Launde Abbey on Saturday 21 September. We'll be walking from the church through Wardley to Belton for lunch and then on to Launde for tea. It'll be a gentle stroll, but you'll be able to join us half way through if you like. Timings are still to be finalised, but do plan to come and join us.

Dates for your Diary (2): Last Night of the Proms A team are putting together a wonderful evening of music in the style of the Last Night of the Proms on Friday 4 October. Starring professional musicians, the first half will be a cornucopia of familiar musical delights. The second half will feature all the Last Night favourites for you to join in with. Tickets are £18, and funds are going to the Church. More details soon, but please note the date.

Readings for next Sunday (Trinity Sunday) Proverbs 8: 1–4; Romans 5: 1–5; John 16: 12–15

Pause for Reflection

O Lord, how manifold are thy works : in wisdom hast thou made them all, the earth is full of thy riches.

So is the great and wide sea also : wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

There go the ships, and there is that Leviathan : whom thou hast made to take his pastime therein.

These wait all upon thee : that thou mayest give them meat in due season.

When thou givest it them they gather it : and when thou openest thy hand they are filled with good.

When thou hidest thy face they are troubled : when thou takest away their breath they die, and are turned again to their dust.

When thou lettest thy breath go forth they shall be made : and thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

The glorious majesty of the Lord shall endure for ever : the Lord shall rejoice in his works.

The earth shall tremble at the look of him : if he do but touch the hills they shall smoke. I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live : I will praise my God while I have my being. And so shall my words please him : my joy shall be in the Lord.

As for sinners, they shall be consumed out of the earth, and the ungodly shall come to an end: praise thou the Lord, O my soul, praise the Lord.

Psalm 104: 24–end [Proper psalm for Whitsunday]
