The Crystal Ball

Music for June 2026

THE SUNDAYS after Trinity, 'neither feast nor fast', have come round again now that we have once more completed the cycle of the great feasts. The beginning of Ordinary Time on 7 June is marked by one of our simplest anthems, David Ogden's two-part setting of words attributed to Teresa of Ávila, Christ has no body now but yours, though the words do not occur in the saint's published works. The following Sunday is RSCM Music Sunday, which we shall celebrate with Sir John Rutter's I will sing with the spirit, originally written for the RSCM – the words are the RSCM motto – and still a favourite of many.

On 21 June, we are very happy to give another outing to Geoff Weaver's setting of George Herbert's Love bade me welcome, a sensitive and appealing setting of these familiar words; and then we come to our Patronal Choral Evensong on 28 June, for which we are, as one might say, pulling out all the stops.

This service will to some extent be a dress rehearsal for our visit to Greenwich in July (of which more in next month's article), as it will be our first performance of Byrd's great six-part anthem Sing joyfully and only our second performance of Mendelssohn's I waited for the Lord (a movement from his Lobgesang). In addition to these two substantial pieces, Evensong will also include Bernard Rose's Preces and Responses, one of the earliest modern settings, and the first to provide alternative settings for the plainsong intonations of the Preces; this setting is now firmly and deservedly established as a classic. The setting of the canticles is also new to us: Bairstow in D is a big Romantic setting belonging firmly to the sound world of two other settings in that key, those by Dyson and Brewer, which are already in our repertoire. We look forward to adding Bairstow to the list.

Next month will have its fair share of excitements also. Watch this space for details . . .

The Collect

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Meditation before service

Thou that hast given so much to me, give one thing more, a grateful heart.
Not thankful, when it pleaseth me;
as if thy blessings had spare days:
but such a heart, whose pulse may be thy praise.

George Herbert (1593-1633)

Exodus 19.2-8a

Old Testament reading

The Israelites had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. ³Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: ⁴You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. ⁵Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, ⁶but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.' ⁷So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. ⁸The people all answered as one: 'Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do.'

Psalm 100

(BCP)

- 1 O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands : serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.
- 2 Be ye sure that the Lord he is God : it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
- 3 O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise : be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.
- 4 For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting : and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Romans 5.1-8

New Testament reading

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ²through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. ³And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, ⁴and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, ⁵and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. ⁶For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person — though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. ⁸But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

The Gospel Reading

Matthew 9.35 – 10.8

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. ³⁶When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; ³⁸therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.' ¹⁰¹Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. ²These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; ³Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; ⁴Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him. ⁵These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, ⁶but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ⁷As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." ⁸Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.'

Postcommunion Collect

Loving Father,
we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit,
that we may serve you here on earth
until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
